Research note

The extract is illustrative. Preserve uncertainty until an original source with full provenance is available.

Research questions and next steps

1. Where is the original marriage entry held?

Record repository, collection, volume, page, and stable reference when found.

2. Do both names match other family documents?

Compare spelling and dates with the Pawford household index and personal records.

3. Which place should be cited?

Use Meowbridge as the working place until the original entry confirms it.
